Dear Maria and all the great people from the Redwood Christmas Market and Doogie and Dun's Christmas Show,

The dreams of children and their families become realities with your generosity and unwavering commitment. A special present, a hot meal and the promise of a new beginning is possible because of your care and compassion.

Thank you for so generously donating $500 in support of the families at the Red Door shelter. Your gift will help provide safe sanctuary and the support needed for children, moms, and families to heal and rebuild their lives. Last year 70 families bravely fled abuse to protect themselves and their children. It's because of generous individuals like you, that we can provide the positive and healing spaces they need to start over.

The holidays are a festive time for so many -- filled with laughter, connection with loved ones, and sharing good food. For families healing in our shelter, this time of year can be filled with loneliness and longing for loved ones. Your gift gives hope to families experiencing homelessness or healing from violence by providing them with the tools they need to succeed.

You support programs that help women rebuild their confidence and self-esteem and you have brought smiles to the faces of children as they discovered the magic of the holidays with a special wrapped gift and enjoyed a mouth-watering festive meal.

If you have questions about our programs or your charitable tax receipt, please reach out to Caitlin FitzGerald, Manager, Annual Giving and Community Engagement at cfitzgerald@reddoorshelter.ca or 416-915-5671, x230. She'll be happy to hear from you.

Thank you for sharing your warmth and joy of the season with families at the Red Door Shelter. Your dedication to creating brighter futures for families builds healthy and thriving communities where potential is realized and children flourish. We are immensely grateful for you and the meaningful gift you've made. Thank you for your continued belief in our mission to help end family homelessness.

With warm appreciation and best wishes for a healthy and happy new year,

Maritza Sanchez
